Subj: Re: Orlando Attack News Story 6 hours before ATTACK (False Flag)

June 15, 2016 —

The Google news search engine picked-up a Chicago Sun-Times Network article about the attack at an Orlando nightclub 6 hours BEFORE the attack took place! The attack occurred around 2:00 AM eastern US time on Sunday, June 12. But the Chicago Sun-Times Network has the following story about the attack, dated 06/11/2016, 08:00PM (Double Click Image to enlarge):

Links do not seem to work, at least through my channels of e-mail and ISP providers.

<http://82.221.129.208/ifyouareinamericayouprobablycantseethisaf2.htm> |

Nothing new has surfaced today that has any credibility once it is sorted out.

My final answer is that Orlando was an act, up until the end, and then if people did die at that time it was due to SWAT taking out Mateen who was "radicalized locally, in the U.S." because he was CIA and they are not saying the CIA part. Mateen is definitely dead. Most likely SWAT was responsible for all deaths while Mateen role-played for the CIA. It's all here folks, if you have not seen this yet, it could not possibly be any more clear than this. There is a substantial panorama of information here, all confirmed, and all of it proves we were lied to about what happened in Orlando. Why else would there be gag orders on everyone?

I am going to let this sit for today so Monday's readers can see it all and then move onto other things.

June 19 2016

BLOCKBUSTER: Patsy to police: The CIA killed Mateen, and they will kill me!

Quick explanation: The man arrested in Santa Monica with bomb material and automatic weapons to "attack a gay pride parade" actually turned himself in to the Santa Monica police for protection after he heard Mateen (who was part of his CIA team) was killed in the shooting! Get a load of this, it appears to be the false flag bust of the century!

"The real truth of the story was released to a former Los Angeles County prosecutor who works for Get Off the BS by two Santa Monica police officers that have been issued gag orders under threat of Federal prosecution for further talking about the incident.

According to two department sources, Howell called the Santa Monica police on Sunday morning claiming that he needed protection from the CIA. Howell further elaborated to the dispatcher stating that he "had been set up by the CIA - they are going to kill me."

According to Howell, he was in LA to meet with another person in a collaborated attack on the gay communities in both Florida and Los Angeles.

Howell additionally stated that, "everything has gone south. Dan was gone when I got here. They killed the leader of the Florida attack this morning. They are going to kill me. I need protection."

According to sources within the police department's investigation Howell indicated to officers who first made contact with him that Howell claimed he was one of five people involved in a planned Sunday attack on both the east and west coasts.

Howell stated that he was supposed to "hook up" late Saturday night with his contact in LA who was suppose to have more weapons and chemicals to mix with the Tannerite he was in possession of.

"When I got here, Dan was gone. I went to his apartment and he had cleared out...I tried calling him but he never answered me," said Howell.

My comment: "Dan cleared out" when he found out the CIA killed one of the guys on his team!

When questioned about the other four people involved in the plot, Howell was only familiar with the first names of three of the alleged suspects, naming his contact in LA - Dan and two of the three contacts in Florida, Omar and Brandy

Speaking of the suspect killed in the Pulse Bar massacre in Florida, Howell stated, "Omar was not suppose to be killed. They lied to us - Omar and Brandy were supposed to get away."

When Howell was questioned about how he and his conspirators knew each other, he said that,

"We were all familiar with each other through an online fundamental Islamic knowledge seminary course[1] - we were recruited through the course and trained together at a camp in Virginia - we were taught how to shoot and make bombs - everyone knew their part - something went wrong..."

Before the officers could further question Howell, agents working for the Los Angeles office of the FBI quickly swept in and took over the case. Santa Monica detectives were never allowed to talk with Howell.

In summary, it appears that Howell was on his way to "hook up" with another conspirator (Dan) to set off explosives and shoot people at the gay pride parade in Hollywood California on Sunday.

Finding his contact missing when he got to LA and having heard that Omar Matteen had been killed by a FBI SWAT team in Orlando, Howell determined he had been double crossed by the CIA and feared for his own life.

Howell was taken in to custody by the FBI before Santa Monica police officers could further question him about the motives behind killing gay people on both coasts of the US on Sunday.

However, in absence of further information and or anyone who will officially go on the record, there is no doubt that the American public is not being told the truth about the Orlando Florida shooting and the arrest of Howell on Sunday.

It is a shame that the Fed's got to the Santa Monica police chief on Sunday before she could speak and was silenced, however we are very thankful that at least two officers have risked their jobs and freedom to reveal what she would of most likely Tweeted had the Fed's not got to her.

MY COMMENT: DOES IT WASH?

Well, what are the chances of the police actually miraculously getting a call about a stalker knocking on windows, (as the official lie goes) only to find out he was armed to the teeth, within hours of Mateen dying and connected to Mateen? ZILCH.

This story washes clean, it makes perfect sense, the guy knew the CIA would kill him when they were done with him and CHICKENED OUT. And the MSM then hatched their bullshit.

And I'd also like to add that this just shows what kind of crap people work for the CIA, all was well and he did not care how many people died, as long as it was not his own @ss.

If you catch this before they wipe it, you will discover that the original story was supposed to be 20 dead and 40 injured, and that it was released to the MSM 6 hours early and damn near everybody published it six hours early. Google scrubbed a lot of it, and an AI or something went through and over wrote all reports (including date updates to the 12th, but the ghost is still there, take a look at this!:

UPDATE: This has been updated and made better as I went around laughing, finding better stuff that totally showed how far their pants were pulled down. They BLEW THIS, the official lie CANNOT SURVIVE THIS.

Here you see they got the date of the incident right, but they posted it a day early. And 20 dead - the original psy op story.

Google Search
Engine Picked-Up ORLANDO ATTACK NEWS STORY 6 Hours BEFORE attack took place!

June 15, 2016 —

The Google news search engine picked-up a Chicago Sun-Times

Network article about the attack at an Orlando nightclub 6 hours BEFORE the attack took place! The attack occurred around 2:00 AM eastern US time on Sunday, June 12. But the Chicago Sun-Times Network has the following story about the attack, dated 06/11/2016, 08:00PM (Double Click Image to enlarge):

How could the Sun-Times Network write a story about an attack which had not taken place yet? The simplest answer is that someone at the Sun-Times Network knew about the attack in advance.

How did someone at the Sun-Times Network know there was going to be an attack at the Pulse nightclub? The simplest answer: The attack was planned by someone other than the guy being blamed. Unless, of course, there is some type of mistake in the time-stamp on the Sun-Times Network article. So, we checked that possibility.

Not Just the Sun-Times, Google Too!

Google's news system is totally automated. It checks thousands of news sites dozens of times a day automatically, and creates a link within Google to news articles, then applies a Google time stamp when the story is acquired by Google (not when the story shows it was published). Google's news system shows that Google picked-up that story BEFORE the attack took place!

The attack took place starting around 2:00 AM eastern US time on Sunday, June 12 and this article (that you're reading right this second) was written around Midnight on June 14 into 15. From June 15, going back four days is June 11 BEFORE the took place. Below is the screenshot of the Google search engine results obtained by SuperStation95 around Midnight on June 14 into 15 showing that Google got the article "4 Days Ago" which would be June 11 BEFORE the attack took place (Double click the image to enlarge):

Now, ask yourself: Who could plan an attack like this in advance, get word to their friends in the Chicago media to write a story about it BUT NOT SAY ANYTHING prior to the attack taking place? The simplest answer: Government.

It is starting to look like the attack at the Pulse Nightclub in Orlando was a "false-flag." The attack did, in fact, take place. But the person being blamed is being made a patsy by the government.

Skeptical? Fine. Click to see the originals . . .

Original Sun-Times Network story with a publication date of 06/11/2016, 08:00 PM (6 hours before the attack) HERE

WHY?

Why would someone murder 49 people in a false flag attack to blame someone else? Politics.

Mass-Murders make a good excuse for gun control.

The Obama

Administration is obsessed with gun control. Would they actually concoct a mass murder to achieve their goals? Well, we have known for months that the Obama

Administration, at the behest of then-Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, began supplying rebels with weapons to overthrow the government of Syria.

Despite

thousands of innocent men, women and children being killed in Syria by those Rebels, the US continues to supply them with weapons. So the deaths of innocent people clearly mean nothing to the Obama Administration.

If they're willing to allow the slaughter of innocent people in Syria, what makes you think they would care about slaughtering innocent people here in America? Hint: They don't care.

[Jewish] President Barack Hussein Obama and most of his Administration are sociopaths. To them, the ends justify the means.

And [Jewess] Hillary

Clinton . . . just as bad. Her

CLASSIFIED memo about overthrowing the Syrian Government "to help Israel"

was leaked through Wikileaks

and it clearly shows she told her boss that the US needed to supply weapons to rebels in Syria, to forcibly overthrow the duly elected government of Syria, as a way "to help Israel." So Hillary is just as much a cold-hearted Sociopath as Obama in our view.

Now that the Obama Administration has taken to killing Americans here at home, so as to further its anti-gun political agenda, we think it wise to tell the American people to prepare to defend yourselves against this Administration. A real fight may be coming. Especially if the President decides that he wants to drum-up so much civil trouble at the Republican and Democrat conventions that he must declare Martial Law to conveniently remain in office.

If he were to pull a stunt like that, it would mean direct confrontation with the American People, likely requiring a Second Amendment solution to defend ourselves from such tyranny.

While we do not have any plans whatsoever to undertake any confrontational action against the government, and do not ask or advocate that any of you take any action—at this time—we feel it important to convey this information to the American people so folks can think about it in calm circumstances prior to any trouble which may make a fight necessary. Full story: superstation95.com

FBI Tried to Lure Orlando Shooter into a Terror Plot in 2013

June 19, 2016 —

US Federal Bureau of Investigation tried to 'lure' Orlando shooter Omar Mateen into committing a terror plot in 2013 by the planting of an informant in his life, revelations that raise serious questions about the FBI's indirect role in shaping the recent Orlando terror attack through its entrapment policies. In an exclusive interview published June 15, Sheriff Ken Mascara of Florida's St. Lucie County told the Vero Beach

Press Journal that the FBI dispatched an informant to 'lure Omar into some kind of act' but he 'did not bite' . . .

In a 2013 column for Mother Jones website, Trevor Aaronson, a journalist and author of "Terror Factory: Inside the FBI's Manufactured War on Terror," revealed that "nearly half of all terrorism cases since 9/11 involved informants, many of them paid as much as US$100,000 per assignment by the FBI".

The latest revelations come as the FBI is facing questions over telling Mateen's former wife not to tell US media he could have possibly been gay, raising question about the FBI's intent to maintain the "Islamist terrorism" narrative instead of a possible personal motive. The FBI is also facing backlash over refusing to release public recording to media relating to Mateen's 911 call to the police in which he allegedly pledged allegiance to the Islamic State group. Full story: video

Washington that drove European integration in the late 1940s, and funded it covertly under the Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon administrations. While irritated at times, the US has relied on the EU ever since as the anchor to American regional interests alongside NATO.

After 1945, a variety of Western organizations, not just intelligence agencies, drew up Programme of covert operations designed both to undermine Communist influence in Europe and to ensure a welcome for the Marshall Plan. Examples have been documented in the fields of electoral politics, organized Labour and cultural affairs. US officials trying to rebuild and stabilize post-war Europe worked from the assumption that it required rapid unification, leading to a United States of Europe. The encouragement of European unification, one of the most consistent components of Harry S. Truman's foreign policy, was even more strongly emphasized under his successor General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Moreover, under both Truman and Eisenhower, US policymakers conceived of European unification not only as an important end in itself, but also as a way to solve the German problem. The use of covert operations for the specific promotion of European unity has attracted little scholarly attention and remains poorly understood. Full story: Diplomacy & Statecraft
