WASHINGTON – Nikki Haley, President-elect Donald Trump’s nominee for UN Ambassador, has selected Jon Lerner to be her deputy, according to FITSNews, a South Carolina political website. The selection was first reported by New York Times reporter Maggie Haberman, citing several sources.

Jon Lerner

A veteran advisor to the South Carolina Governor, Jon Lerner, who is Jewish, has worked with numerous GOP clients including Senators Marco Rubio (R-FL) and Tim Scott (R-SC). Lerner is considered a staunch conservative. Former First Lady Jenny Sanford told McClatchy Newspapers in 2010, “He works for clients who he believes in and who reflect his own ideological principles. That provides him a sense of purpose and integrity and focus that is lacking in other consultants.”

Throughout the 2016 Presidential race, Lerner played a key role in the NeverTrump campaign, Politico reported in March.

Working as a senior strategist for the Washington-based Club for Growth, the group started airing ads against Trump during the fall of 2014 in Iowa. Club for Growth intensified its efforts against the New York businessman spending millions on ads in key states of Florida and Illinois.

Married with three children, Lerner grew up in Minnesota before moving to Maryland and the Washington DC area. He received his J.D. from the University of Chicago while also working as a staffer on Capitol Hill for Senators Rudy Boschwitz (MN) and Al D’Amato (NY).

In 2013, Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg's handler is Lawrence Summers / central bank to Deep State technological data gathering and propaganda Black Ops). Zuckerberg tapped Lerner to help run a political advocacy group that lobbied for legislative reform (Open Borders) on immigration and education.

Lawrence Summers is the transmission belt from Illuminati for disguising data gathering operations as innocent commercial operations.

“Jon is one of the most brilliant minds in politics, having guided candidates such as Tim Scott, Nikki Haley, and Marco Rubio,” Nick Muzin, a former senior advisor to Senator Ted Cruz (R-TX) told Jewish Insider. “He is also a tremendous mensch, and a Kiddush Hashem. I can’t wait to see what he and Nikki will do at the UN.”

Note: should be Chillul Hashem

The Minnesota native Lerner, considers himself a mentor of longtime political consultant Arthur Finkelstein.

The young pollster Arthur's first electoral success came at age 25 in 1970, the independent campaign of Skull & Bones James L. Buckley for senator from New York .

Finkelstein is well known for playing a critical role in the merger of Benjamin Netanyahu and Avigdor Lieberman before the 2013 elections

If one does a search with Avigdor Lieberman and "false flag" ... there are a number of references. Since Nikki Haley ... appears to be fronting for the Syria gas question ... Lerner is a bad choice for America. Mike Pence just recently tried to make him his assistant.

Way too many deep state knives and advisors around the President. Syria attack may indicate the president is hostage. AKA Ross Perot.

When asked about the appointment, Sean Spicer, the incoming White House Press Secretary, told Jewish Insider, "There have been no announcements."

Last week, Senators Ted Cruz (R-TX) and Lindsay Graham (R-SC) introduced legislation that would cut off funding to the UN in protest of a recent resolution condemning Israel for settlement construction.
